This should be from a professor that the applicant is most likely to select as an adviser or who will at least work closely with the student. Please check with your FLAS Coordinator at the address below.)

Describe how the language and area training you receive during the period of your FLAS fellowship will help prepare you to achieve your academic and career goals. Please limit your responses to no more than 600 words.*

Describe your training to date, your primary research interests, and the themes in your coursework and/or thesis or dissertation projects. Please limit your responses to no more than 1200 words. *The evaluation committee understands that beginning or early graduate students may have rudimentary thesis or dissertation plans, while more advanced students will be able to lay out plans for major research projects in some detail. Likewise, the committee understands that essays from applicants in professional schools or other non-thesis degree programs will be quite different from essays written by students planning theses or dissertations. So, view this essay as a chance to inform the committee of your current thoughts on how you hope to advance knowledge in your field or use your training to prepare for valuable work in a profession.**
